BOND ELECTION TO BE CHANGED

VOTING WILL TAKE PLACE IN FEBRUARY, NOT JANUARY, AS WAS FIRST DECIDED

CHANCE TO REGISTER

MOVING OF MANY PEOPLE IS CAUSE OF CHANGE IN PLAN OF CITY TRUSTEES

The special election to be called by the board of city trustees for the purpose of submitting a proposition to issue bonds for $100,000 for extension to the city water system and $126,000 in bonds for a civic center, will not be held in January, as first decided upon, but will be held sometime during February.

It is probable that the board of city trustees in session tonight will pass the ordinance calling the combined $226,000 bond issue election and designate the date in February.

New registration of voters can be made after the first of the year anu in view of the fact that, within the last few months, there have been a large number of changes of residence, the board of trustees has decided the bond election should be held at a date which will permit of changes in registration.

The propositions to be voted upon have already been described in The Evening News, the only change being the decision to locate three parks in as many different portions of the city.

BUY PROPERTY

SALT LAKE CITY MEN ARE TO LOCATE HERE; PURCHASE LARGE CORNER LOT

F. J. Hewlett and G. A. Wilson, of the Hewlett and Wilson company of Salt Lake City, have recently bought property in Glendale, after a careful consideration of the attractions and advantages of numerous southern California cities.

Messrs. Hewlett and Wilson are prominent business men of the northern city, shrewd and farseeing; for this reason their choice of Glendale as a place of location is a high compliment to this city.

The property purchased is a large corner at Doran and Louise streets, and the new owners have gone back to Salt Lake to close up their business affairs there and move their families to Glendale. They will build two homes on their newly acquired property. Mr. Hewlett is Mr. Wilson's father-in-law, and their families wish to live near each other.

To Engage in Business

Messrs. Hewlett and Wilson will engage in some business here, and it is probable that they will buy a site and build a bungalow court. They have built up a prosperous business in spices, extracts and true fruit beverages in their old home town, and feel confident that there are business opportunities in various lines in Glendale, where their efforts will be crowned with a large measure of success.

The sale of the property at Doran and Louise streets was made through the Wilkin & Merriken Realty company, of South Central avenue, who have also been commissioned to watch for suitable business openings for their clients.

Mr. Rothsuss also took five first prizes for English white runt pigeons. He expects to enter a number of his birds in the national pigeon show which will be held next month in Oakland.

The picturesque costumes of gypsies, bathing beauties, "night," ballet dancers, jesters, Martha Washingtons, German peasants, fairies, witches and princesses, as well as other fancy dress costumes. made the affair a very gay one. The young folks seated themselves on the floor and were served a "lap" supper. Dancing and games were enjoyed.

TRUSTEES TO MEET TONIGHT

The board of city trustees will hold a meeting tonight and a number of matters will come up for consideration.

OLD AND YOUNG

MOTHERS' READING CIRCLE IN SESSION; CHILDREN HAVE AFTERNOON TOGETHER

"Old folks and young together, and children mingled among them" was the order of the day yesterday afternoon at the Hartley Shaw home, 212 West Park avenue, where Mrs. Shaw was hostess to the Mothers' Reading circle and all the children of the mothers who compose this congenial club of ladies.

The children, twenty-one of them, ranged in age from three months to eighteen years—and it's rally a misstatement to say there were any "old folks" there, none of the mothers being at all ancient, and the time and the occasion making them all like unto little children; for is not the Yuletide season recognized everywhere as the special feast of the children?

The youngsters, full of the joy and interest in life that belongs peculiarly to healthy young ones, needed not a set program of diversions; they played games of all sorts or any sorts dictated by their fertile fancy, and amused themselves as well as their elders, from two o'clock to half past four, when refreshments were served and they went home with their mothers in time to get dinner for their fathers.

The party had an especial interest for each mother, in that it afforded her an opportunity to make personal acquaintance with the other mothers' children, whom she had long known by reputation through the conversations at the Reading Circle.

The ladies of the Circle are planning a "Fathers' Evening," that they may become personally acquainted with the husbands of their fellow members, many of whom are also known to them only by hearsay—or shall we say reputation?

ONLY TWO FAIL

Major Kirk, who was present at the examination last night, announced that the colonel was planning to come out to Glendale in a few weeks to look up a site for the new armory building to be constructed as headquarters for the Glendale company. Until this building is completed, the high school gymnasium will be used for drill work.

WEDDING IN JANUARY

MRS. SEYMOUR SMITH IS ONE HOSTESS AND MRS. WAYNE SMITH IS ANOTHER

A number of pre-nuptial parties are being arranged by the Glendale friends of Miss Kathleen Dodge of San Onfre, until a year ago a resident of this city, who is to be a January bride.

A handkerchief shower was given in her honor yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Seymour Smith at her home, 416 West Wilson avenue.

A clever guessing game had been arranged by the hostess by mixing together the letters that compose Miss Dodge's and her fiance's name, the guests being instructed to rearrange the letters and form as many words as possible from them. Mrs. Dwight Stephenson won the first prize and Mrs. Fred Dodge the consolation prize.

The holiday colors were carried out in the decorations of holly and red bells. There was also a Christmas tree on which the daintily-wrapped handkerchiefs were placed while Miss Dodge was absent from the room. She later returned and removed her gifts. Light refreshments were served during the course of the afternoon.

List of Invited Guests

The list of invited guests follows: Miss Kathleen Dodge, Mrs. Fred Dodge, Mrs. F. R. Johnson of Los Angeles, Mrs. Ray Smith and daughter Lucille and Mrs. Alec Jeffries and daughter Neda of Owensmouth, Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mrs. Noble Ripley, Mrs. John Hobbs, Miss Mary Logan, Mrs. D. H. BREAKS HIS ARM

EDWIN CLINE, AGED 11 YEARS, FALLS FROM HIS BICYCLE AND PAINFULLY HURT

A Christmas bicycle may be an unalloyed joy—and then, again, it may not.

Eleven-year-old Edwin Cline, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cline, 720 East Windsor road, says in his case it was an unalloyed joy, all right, for 'bout three days. Then, on Monday, he fell off his "bike" and broke his arm. It was a compound fracture and a dislocation besides, and it hurt like anything. A specialist from Los Angeles had to come to fix it. Edwin says he read in The Evening News about a little girl who broke her arm and had to take gas; but he says he can beat that: he had to take gas twice; once when the doctors in the sanitarium 'xamined the break, and again when the specialist came to fix it.

But Edwin is at home from the sanitarium now, and his arm has stopped hurting and as soon as it is well again he'll ride the bike again, but he'll be more careful—maybe.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS ARE GIVEN FIRST CHOICE IN GOVERNMENT WORK

The United States Civil Service commission, in a communication to The Glendale Evening News, calls attention to the fact that an act of congress approved July 11, 1919, provides:

"That hereafter in making appointments to clerical and other positions in the executive branch of the government in the District of Columbia or elsewhere preference shall be given to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, and widows of such, and to the wives of injured soldiers, sailors, and marines who themselves are not qualified, but whose wives are qualified to hold such positions."

If you are entitled to the benefit of this act you should attach to your application, and submit with it your original discharge, a photo-stat copy, or a certified copy thereof, or the official record of your service. It will be returned to you after inspection by the commission.

Women's Dress Sale

Gordon's, 119 North Brand boulevard, begins tomorrow a noteworthy sale of women's dresses—a sale where values are not surpassed by those of any Los Angeles sales.

This bargain opportunity has been made posible by the fact that Mr. Gordon has just received from one of the foremost dress manufacturers of New York fifty sample dresses, all of them advance spring models. Mr. Gordon received these garments at a special price concession and generously gives his patrons the advantage of this fortunate purchase.

These dresses are priced at one-half of the sum that would be asked for them if they were sold from regular stock. Among them are such well-liked materials as serges, tricotines, poiret, twills, jerseys, in all wool materials; and crepe de chines, crepe meteors, taffetas and tub silks in the silks.

A number of silk and plaid wool skirts are also offered at half price in tomorrow's sale. Gordon has a fine window display of these dresses, and as they will no doubt be in great demand, an early selection is advisable.

CLOSE TO TWO THOUSAND MARK

Final checking up of returns from the recent bazaar held by the Tuesday club brings the net proceeds very close to the thousand-dollar mark.

This is a remarkable showing for a one-day bazaar, and is indicative of the vigor and initiative of the Tuesday Afternoon club; "the club that does things," it might be called.

Their wonderful team work combined with this spirit of vim and initiative undoubtedly make safe the prediction that the club will celebrate next New Year's day in its own new club house.

BOND FINANCES

the unappropriated balance of $18,059.12, and from the sale of the $146,000.00 bonds remaining unsold.

Verdugo Road reservoir	$ 68,730.00
Glendale Ave. pipe line	47,500.00
Wells in Verdugo Canyon	5,096.00
Pipe on E. Broadway and Mariposa	7,815.50
Improvement in Grand View district—
Reservoir	6,000.00
Extension of pump lines	7,100.00
pumping plant	4,600.00
Total	$146,841.50

I have shown the Grand View project as one item, because it would be of little use to commence it unless all of the work herein contemplated on that project is completed.

Within the last few days there have been some sharp breaks in the price of iron and steel goods which seem to indicate that future work will be let at a much lower price than has heretofore prevailed.

Respectfully,
(Signed) H. B. LYNCH.

Work Ordered by Board

The board of trustees now has under way the expenditure of about $146,000 on the improvement of the water system, including the Glendale avenue pipe line, the two Grand avenue reservoirs, the extension of the pipe line between the pumping plant and Vine avenue and Tenth street, the erection of a Vine avenue pumping plant, laying of water pipe on Sycamore canyon road, construction of a pipe line on East Broadway and pipe for the Mariposa and Acacia street lines.

All this work has not been contracted for, as bids on most of it are to be opened in about two weeks. Action looking toward the work has, however, been taken by the trustees and, it is expected, the extensive improvements on the city's water system will be under way shortly after the first of the new year.

MANY OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

Great masses of magnificent holly from the Maribou ranch adorned the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rockhold, 330 West Burchett street, on the occasion of their Christmas dinner party.

Many out-of-town guests enjoyed the merry affair, among them Mr. Rockhold's father and sisters from Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Gibbs of Council Bluffs, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. E. Wasson of Canton, Illinois; Mrs. Emma Campbell and daughter, Miss Sara, of Los Angeles. Glendale guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bardsley, Mrs. Rockhold's father and mother, and Mrs. Margaret Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cutter, 337 West Burchett street, are entertaining Fresno guests during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Noble, of San Diego, were the holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Sands, 345 West Burchett street.

Mrs. Phoebe Spraker, 346 West Burchett street, was hostess on Christmas to her sons, Will and Theodore, and their respective families, of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Henry Pentecost of 206 West Palmer avenue is entertaining Mrs. Bacon and two children of Huntington Park, Mrs. Dr. Redmond and Miss Gilliland of Danville, Illinois, today.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Staples of West Doran street have had as their house guests during the holiday season Mrs. Staples' father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Siple, and her brother, Meredith Siple, of the Mile High Ranch, near Beaumont.

SLENDER SILHOUETTE TO STAY

CLEVELAND—The semi-annual meeting of the National Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Association here was attended by more than three hundred delegates, who discussed the new fashions for spring as displayed by living models at the style show here.

No very radical changes are shown from the lines of fall and winter garments. Skirts continue short and straight. The slender silhouette predominates and the youthful spirit was expressed in many garments.

"Individuality is the keynote of early spring apparel," said Phillip Frankel, executive secretary of the association. "Every woman will have opportunity to express her own personality through selection of the variety of models offered by the manufacturers for 921."

Since prohibition's advent about all the average man has to do is to get up with the lark instead of going out on it.

Pleasant Surprise

If you read Sherwin & Williams' advertisement in this issue of The Evening News you are going to find a pleasant surprise. If your floors need touching up you especially should not fail to read the ad. You need to have less than twenty cents in your pocket to go to Neale & Gregg's and get a can of Floorlac and a brush; how much less you will have to ascertain for yourself.

PREPARE FLOAT

VOLUNTEER WORKERS ASKED TO INFORM COMMITTEE IF THEY WILL APPEAR

The float to be entered by the city of Glendale in the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena on New Year's day is now nearing completion and will, about noon tomorrow, be ready for its floral dress.

The route of the parade in Pasadena will be the same as it has been for years past. About Tournament park a big, open space is to be maintained, cars and autos not being allowed on California street there, making a great concourse from there to California and Lake, which will be the electrical car terminus for those going to the game.

In connection with the appeal issued through The Evening News yesterday for volunteer workers to appear at the fire house on East Broadway at 1 o'clock Friday to aid in placing flowers on the float, it is asked that all who intend to appear notify Mr. Chobe at the fire house or leave word at the city manager's office at the city hall. The committee wants to know how many workers it can depend upon.

ELECTION DATE

BALLOTING FOR CONGRESSMAN IN NINTH DISTRICT WILL BE ON FEBRUARY 15

According to a dispatch from Sacramento, Governor W. D. Stephens has issued a proclamation calling for special elections on February 15 to fill a vacancy in the ninth congressional district caused by the death of C. F. Van de Water, killed shortly after his election, and in the twenty-fourth assembly district, caused by the death of William Collins of San Francisco.

Walter F. Lineberger of Long Beach is the nominee of Republicans for the position of congressman.

New Business Starts

Glendale has a new battery and auto-electric service station, and the energy and enthusiasm of the young men opening it presage success for the venture. Messrs. Psenner and Doll have purchased the equipment and stock of the Newton battery station and removed it to larger quarters—610 East Broadway. They are adding to this equipment and stock and are prepared to handle any work in their line.

Herman E. Psenner has lived in Glendale for five years and for a year has been connected with the Willard service station in this city. Glendale has been the home of R. F. Doll for the last thirteen years, although for some time past he has been in this same business at San Fernando.

Both of these gentlemen are thorough automobile electricians and competent in all branches of the work that such a place usually handles. They are intelligent, courteous and honorable young men.

Tomorrow they will have something to say for themselves in an advertisement in The Evening News.

GLENDALE PEOPLE PREVENT APPENDICITIS

Many Glendale people are using simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This flushes BOTH upper and lower bowel so completely it removes all foul, accumulated poisons from alimentary canal and prevents appendicitis. Adler-i-ka relieves ANY CASE gas on stomach or sour stomach. Often CURES constipation. In one case of chronic stomach trouble ONE bottle produced wonderful results.—Roberts & Echols, druggists.

LOCAL SCENES

GLENDALE VIEWS TO APPEAR IN FEATURE PICTURE; BOY PRODUCTION'S STAR

Every city has its bad boy, but Glendale has been selected as the home town of "Peck's Bad Boy," because the director believes it to be a typical example of the prosperous American small city. The $125,000 production is now being filmed on the streets of Glendale.

The picture, a First-National release put out by the Erving-Lesser Film company of the Brunton studio, Hollywood, stars Jackie Coogan, the now famous child comedian, who co-starred with Charlie Chaplin in "The Kid." Jackie's "big pal" is Wheeler Oakland, another well known player who is, incidentally, the husband of Priscilla Dean, and his little pal is Charlie Hatton. Sam Wood, one of the big men of the Lasky forces, is the director.

All Exterior Scenes Here

It will be a five reel feature, all exterior scenes of which will be laid in Glendale. Yesterday scenes were taken in front of the Pope & Tollett confectionery store, the Glendale Paint & Wall Paper company, and Walker's grocery and market, all on South Brand, and the First National bank on the southeast corner of Brand boulevard and East Broadway.

One of the scenes required a "mob" and a number of Glendale people were used in this.

PLAN SERVICE

OLD YEAR WILL BE SPEEDED AND NEW ONE WELCOMED BY PRESBYTERIANS

A big watchnight service is to be held at the Presbyterian church New Year's eve. The three departments of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor are arranging the program, which promises to be both interesting and appropriate.

Paul Brown, United States Christian Endeavor superintendent, is to speak. A delightful social evening is planned and refreshments are to be served.

DANCE PLANNED

MANAGER CAL WAINER TO BE HOST TO LARGE NUMBER ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Devotees of the dance will not have to leave Glendale to speed the old year on its way, for Manager Cal Wainer is promising the best time ever at the dance Friday night in the K. of P. hall, Park and Brand. There will be confetti and serpentine battles and other things that will contribute to a good time.

Manager Wainer also promises plenty of surprises for the regular Saturday night dance at the same place.

Turkey and Goose

The White Inn, at Broadway and Glendale avenue, will serve a turkey and goose dinner on New Year's day at a dollar and a half a plate.

This will, no doubt, be good news to housewives tired out with Christmas shopping and Christmas cooking; they will be glad to be relieved of the heavy duty of preparing a New Year's dinner. For this reason the management advises making reservations in advance.

The menu for the New Year's dinner at the White Inn may be found in their advertisement in this issue of The Evening News.

Tired, But Happy

We are tired, but happy; in fact, too tired to prepare a regular advertisement for tomorrow's business. But, as we said, we are happy, for the volume of business with us during the holidays has been a fitting climax to a most successful year. The people of Glendale are loyal to their home merchants and this store gratefully appreciates their business.

While we give no prices in this advertisement for Friday, you will find the usual week-end inducements when you call.

Permit us to directly thank you all for your past patronage and to wish you a happy and prosperous year during 1921.

Yours truly,

Happy New Year!

We should be ungrateful, indeed, if we did not possess a spirit of appreciation for the generous patronage extended us not only during the holiday season, but for months preceding. Thus it is that in a genuine spirit of fellowship we wish everyone in this city a prosperous and happy New Year.

Promptness, courtesy, best quality of goods and reasonable prices comprise, in our judgment, real service to the public, and while we may have fallen short of our ideals in this respect, we have made an honest effort to live up to them. In the coming year we shall strive still harder, if that is possible, to merit your patronage.

FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Stephenson, Mrs. Nelson Frazier, Mrs. Lloyd Bradley, Mrs. J. J. Schremp, Mrs. J. Evans of New York, Mrs. Ernest Lyons, Miss Essie Hamilton, Mrs. Harry Wilson, Mrs. Smith MacMullin, Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. John Huntley and the little Misses Dorothy Jean Ripley, Harriet Louise Wilson and Marcia Smith.

A miscellaneous shower was given Miss Dodge Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Wayne Smith, 519 North Maryland avenue, attended by twenty-four young women, former schoolmates of the honor guest. The afternoon was spent in needlework and sociability, after which a dainty lap luncheon was served.

The many beautiful gifts presented to Miss Dodge were wrapped in white and tied with red ribbons, thus carrying out the color scheme of red and white. To each was attached a bride's slipper fashioned of white paper and tied with red tulle. The gifts were placed in a larger slipper of the same pattern.

Miss Dodge is really a Glendale girl, having lived here most of her life and having graduated from the Glendale public schools. She left Glendale about a year ago with her family to reside on a ranch in San Diego county. Here she met her fiance, Chelby Darling. The wedding will take place January 8 at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Alec Jeffries of Owensmouth.

GLENDALE MOTHER REPLIES TO CHRISTMAS GREETINGS SENT BY HER SON

A subscriber to The Evening News—a mother—this Christmas wrote to her son in answer to a Christmas card sent by him. This mother kept a copy of her answer and sent it to The Evening News, as follows:

THE RESPONSE
To C. S. S.

Your card received, my precious boy,
And 'tis a prize that gives me joy
To know my love—a fadeless rose—
Finds light within your heart and grows.

Sometime your children, fond and true,
Will send such messages to you;
Oh, then you'll know how sweet to me
Are Season's Greetings sent by thee.

Chicken Or Duck

Cook's restaurant on Brand boulevard, next to the Glendale Theatre, has plans for a sumptuous chicken and duck dinner on New Year's day.

Mrs. Cook's dinnrs have already attained such popularity that there is sure to be a large number of people who will be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity to enjoy a New Year's dinner at Cook's.

For this reason it is wise to reserve places in advance. in order to avoid disappointment.

The first models of motor trucks were simply express bodies mounted on passenger car chasis, and were far from being reliable hauling units.

MUSICAL TREAT

MISSION REST HOME LADIES ARE GIVEN PROGRAM BY DR. MARION WHITING

Out at Mission Rest Home on the San Fernando boulevard the old ladies who live there gathered in the sun parlor on Sunday evening in anticipation of a Christmas musical treat.

Their anticipations were realized in the program arranged for them by Dr. Marion Whiting, a philanthropist who lives in Los Angeles. Among those who came with Dr. Whiting and participated in the program were Walter A. Snyder, of Pasadena, whose mother has lived many years in Mission Rest Home; Violet C. Benton, of Pasadena, R. A. Patchitt, late of Toronto, Canada.

The old ladies, some of them leaning on canes, others in wheel chairs, came eagerly to hear the program and were delighted with the beautiful songs and sprightly stories. Mrs. Moberly, the presiding genius of the home, looked after the comfort of her charges.

Treat of Flowers and Apples

At the close of the program a treat of flowers and apples was given the old ladies by the musicians.

Dr. Whiting devoted herself during the late war to the entertainment of the soldiers in the camps and is now giving all her time to this kind of work. She is on the program of the next Los Angeles Ebell club meeting.

Mrs. Moberly, of Mission Rest Home, will be a speaker at the same meeting.

HOLIDAY LULL

INDICATIONS ARE THAT CITY PERMITS WILL PICK UP FIRST OF NEW YEAR

Reports of the building inspector, Frank Marek, for the last several weeks show a slight decline in building operations in Glendale. From a daily average of from five to ten permits the average now has dropped to three or four, due to the holidays.

Many permits are for the remodeling of garages and ninety-day houses, which would indicate that persons coming to Glendale are living in garages, contemplating the erection of permanent homes soon.

The lull in construction work because of the holidays, is a welcome relief to the majority of contractors, after the busiest year which they have ever experienced. However, Mr. Marek, and many real estate men of the city, are of the opinion that the first of the year will bring a change and a very marked one. By the first of January real estate will begin to "pick up," they predict, and spring building will again be very active.

The old-fashioned idea that clothing was intended to protect the body may be revived again some day.

MANY HELPED

NEEDY FAMILIES IN CITY OF GLENDALE ARE TAKEN CARE OF BY WELFARE BOARD

Thirty-three baskets of food, clothing and toys were packed and delivered to the poor of Glendale this Christmas by the Glendale Welfare council, composed of the churches and the different organizations engaged in welfare work in the city of Glendale, which is an auxiliary of the City Welfare bureau.

The work was directed by Mrs. E. D. Yard, president of the council; Mrs. L. W. Sinclair, treasurer; Mrs. E. L. Young, secretary, and Mrs. C. S. Archer, one of the directors.

The council wishes to thank all those who helped in the work, including B. D. Kurtz, E. D. Yard and H. V. Henry, who furnished their services and automobiles to deliver the baskets Christmas Eve; the philanthropic chairmen of the P.-T.'s who organized the school children in the charitable work, and the organizations who have paid or pledged donations toward carrying on the work.

To Present Duplication

While unorganized philanthropic work has been carried on in Glendale by churches and organizations for a number of years, the Welfare council accomplished more this year, the second year since it was organized, than all other organizations combined, it is stated. One who has been connected with the work of the charities since the beginning states that eight years ago eight families were sent baskets; this Christmas thirty-three were helped.

The primary purpose of the Welfare council is to organize charitable work in the city and prevent duplication. Persons, therefore, knowing of those in need are requested to report all such cases to Mrs. Sinclair at her office in the city hall and the matter will be immediately attended to.

Through an article recently published in The Evening News, three cases were brought before the attention of the council and relief was given at once.

It may come to the point where a man will not be asked to do anything except look after the housework.

MUSIC PLEASES

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH HOLDS SERVICE; CHOIR IS ATTRACTIVE FEATURE

The Christmas musical program rendered Sunday night by the choir of the Central Christian church met every expectation of the large audience which filled the church in response to the announcement that this choir would give an evening of Christmas music. The service began with carols sung while the audience sat in the soft, candle-lighted auditorium. These were sung by the choir and by the young ladies of the S. O. S. in different rooms adjacent to the church proper. The choir carried lighted candles in an impressive processional in taking their places for the program of the evening.

The anthems rendered were: "O, Little Town of Bethlehem," "The Virgin and the Child, "The New Born King" and "The Birthday of the King." The last anthem was repeated by the request of numbers of people who had heard it in the morning service. Solo parts were well sung by Mrs. Floyd Mercer, Mrs. F. W. Pigg and W. F. Strock. Other members of the choir who did splendid ensemble work were Mrs. O. L. Zook, Mrs. R. P. Jodon, Mrs. Eva Hutton and H. A. Marple. The offertory and the accompaniments were played in a most effective manner by Mrs. M. G. Musser. The entire performance reflected credit upon both the choir and its leader, Mrs. Cavin Whiting.

Eight Unite with Church

The sermon by the minister, Rev. Clifford A. Cole, was a story of the "First Christmas Service," with lessons and exhortations drawn from its recital. The place, the time, the congregation, the preacher, the sermon and the music which featured that first Christmas service on the Judean hills and nineteen centuries ago had its striking features. But the sermon and song shall go on forever and shall be told and retold till all the earth shall hear and be blessed. This was the outline of a stirring address. Eight persons united with the church, making the total of new members for 1920 one hundred eleven.

It is estimated that the world's sugar crop for 1920-21 will be approximately 1,700,000 tons greater than the total production of 1919-20. It must be understood, in considering this estimate, that there are still two or three months of growing weather which can materially affect the crop. The indicated world production this season is more than 17,000,000 tons of cane and beet sugar.

OUTLINE EVENTS

PLEASING PROGRAM TO BE PRESENTED AT GATHERING OF COUNTY Y. M. C. A.

Among the good things in store for those who attend the Y. M. C. A. county convention at the First Methodist church on the evening of January 11 are saxaphone solos by Stanley Baker of Los Angeles, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker have won fame for their valuable aid in Americanization work among the foreigners in the industrial districts of Los Angeles, in getting the people to sing the songs of our country. Mr. Baker is a singer as well as a saxaphone player. He and Mrs. Baker were also active in war work. Other musical treats are promised, also, for this meeting.

The orator of the day is Dr. William H. Crawford, president of Allegheny college, noted throughout the East as an interesting, forceful speaker.

Begin with Chicken Dinner

The convention will begin with a chicken dinner, served at half-past six by the ladies of the Methodist church—which is equal to saying that it will be a very good dinner.

Another interesting feature will be a demonstration by a group of boys of the "four by four" work—the development of the physical, intellectual, religious and service phases of boy life.

Morgan county, Alabama, farmers have saved about $10 a ton by mixing their own fertilizer under the direction of the county agent. Three hundred farmers joined the movement and bought a carload of ground limestone.

RETURNING HOME

RALPH STAUB COMING BACK TO GLENDALE; MOVIES OF ALASKA ARE TAKEN

Ralph Staub of Glendale, who has been in Alaska taking moving pictures, is now on his way home. The Evening News received a card from him, under the date line of Nenana, Alaska, in which he said:

"I m leaving in a few days for my home in Glendale with moving pictures of Alaska. I wish you a merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year."

The card sent to The Evening News contains a snow scene, similar to those experienced by Mr. Staub and, no doubt, he will be glad to get back to southern California and Glendale.

PARTY IS HELD

MISS LAURA WILFORD BROWN IS HOSTESS; GAMES AND FOLK DANCES GIVEN

An after Christmas party at which twenty-four members of the primary and beginner's classes were present, chaperoned by their mothers, and teachers, was held Tuesday afternoon in the Sunday school rooms of the Christian church. It is an annual affair. The afternoon passed pleasantly with games, songs and folk dances. Jello, cake and candy was served at one long table. Miss Laura Wilford Brown, primary superintendent, acted as hostess.

It is easy for a man to get into a stew if his brew is taken away from him.
